VOL. VII. NO. 222.

CHICAGO, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1901.

PRICE 5 CENTS

ANOTHER DALY SALE.

No sales of the year attracted such widespread interest as did the two sales of thoroughbreds belonging to the estate of the late Marcus Daly, and these are now to be supplemented by another which, October 1, will mark the complete dispersal of the magnificent stud which Mr. Daly had collected when death called him. The horses now to be sold are those he had at Apsfield Court Stud in England, and comprises eleven selected American brood mares and nine of England's most fashionable blood lines. Besides the twenty brood mares, nine yearlings by Melton, St. Simon, St. Frusquin, Ayrshire, Raeburn, St. Serf, Donovan and Orion and eleven weanlings by Raeburn, Melton, St. Frusquin, Orme, St. Simon, St. Serf, Ayrshire, Donovan and Grey Leg are to be sold. That the competition to secure these grand brood mares and richly bred youngsters will be of the keenest description may be ascertained in advance, and high prices will be the rule. Lady Reel, the dam of Hamburg, is represented by a yearling and a weanling, both brown fillies and both by St. Simon.

The American bred brood mares are:
Lady Reel (dam of Hamburg), by Fellowcraft—Mannie Gray, bred to St. Simon.

Workmate (dam of Ben Eder) by Bulwark—Longmate, bred to Ladas.

Puritan Lass (dam of Tillo), by Spendthrift—Phoebe Mayflower, bred to Kendal.

Anna Gray (dam of Holstein), by Free Knight—Alice Gray, bred to Trenton.

Affatus, by Inverness—Affinity, bred to Raeburn.

Lizzie D., by Onondaga—Spaldie, bred to Orion.

Pocahontas, by Duke of Montrose—Heleva, bred to Childwick.

The nine English-bred mares were secured by Mr. Daly regardless of cost, and several of them required the expenditure of sums that would be a fortune to the majority of men. Their names and breeding are as follows:

Lucy Cross, by St. Simon—Verdigris, by Springfield, bred to Melton.

L'Esclave, by St. Serf—Pauline, by Hermit, bred to Royal Hampton.

Argenta, by Pioneer—Granite, by The Duke, bred to Orion.

FUTURITY MATRONS.

RANCOCAS YEARLINGS SOLD.

The much-talked of sale of yearling from the Rancocas Stock Farm, who were bred by the late Pierre Lorillard, and the last sale of yearlings for the season at the Fasig-Tipton Company's paddock at Sheepshead Bay took place Thursday before a large crowd. As the yearlings were all well bred and were related to many good performers the bidding was lively. The highest price paid was $2,700, which H. H. Laurence gave for the half brother to Petra II., a colt by Sensation—Poncho. The brown filly by The Sailor Prince—Saluda, a sister to Sandia and Sibola, went to James R. Keene for $2,000. The same amount was paid by H. H. Laurence for the bay filly by Sensation—Golden Valley, a sister to Ganymede and Golden Horseshoe. The colt by The Sailor Prince—Joy, a brother to Jolly Tar II., a great performer in England, was sold to G. Walbaum for $2,000. Pierre Lorillard Jr. gave $400 for the gelding by Sailor Prince, $200 for the Pontiac—Alastly filly and the same amount for the filly by Locohatchee—Harlem. Summary:

WORTH'S COMING MEETING.

During the fall meeting of the Worth Jockey Club, October 10 to 26 inclusive, Secretary Hiller will make innovations in the racing that will please both the public and horsemen. No entrance fee will be charged in purse events, but the fields will be limited to at least fourteen and possibly that number may be reduced to twelve. This move should prove a benefit to lovers of high-class sport, to bookmakers, to form figurers and race followers in general. Long delays at the post are tedious, especially in the fall when inclement weather is to be expected and the limiting of the fields will prove a boon to Starter Dwyer.

A serious complication which now stares the secretary of Worth in the face is, where to stable all the horses that want to race at the new track. There are less than seven hundred stalls at Worth and most of the horsemen now racing at Hawthorne or Harlem want to move their entire stables to Worth. Hawthorne and Harlem are in close proximity to each other and can divide stabling accommodations but as Worth is some distance from either track the horsemen insist on moving bag and baggage to the new track. "There is but one way out of this situation," said Secretary Hiller yesterday, "I want to accommodate all the horsemen but they will have to bring only horses to Worth that are fit and ready to race. As soon as Manager J. E. Wagner returns to the city I will consult him about the running of a special horse train every morning from Harlem and Hawthorne to Worth."

A letter recently received from S. C. Wagner, now at Sheepshead Bay, stated that a number of Western owners had approached him in regard to coming west for the fall meeting and requested that stable room be reserved for them. President John Powers is expected back from Europe, S. C. Wagner from New York and J. E. Wagner from his fishing trip the coming week, and a meeting of the directors will be held to decide questions of moment for the Worth fall meeting. Racing will begin promptly at 2 o'clock and six races will be carded, with a probability of seven on Saturday.

NOTICE.

The Maywood Handicap, announced by the Harlem Jockey Club to be run on Saturday, September 14, is declared off under the provisions of Rule 14. Entrance fees, already paid, will be credited to the accounts of the original nominators.

M. NATHANSON, Secretary.

DEATH OF M. F. DWYER'S SON.

NEW YORK, September 14.—Young James Dwyer, son of M. F. Dwyer, died last night.

Messrs. Whitney, Belmont, Mackay and Follansbee declared all their horses out of today's engagements on account of the death of the President. At a meeting this morning Messrs. Whitney and Belmont urged the closing of the track today, but in view of the fact that two of the greatest stakes of the year—the Champion and Great Eastern Handicap—were down for decision, and it being the last day of their racing season, the governors of the Coney Island Jockey Club formed a resolution to race off the original program of purses and stakes as advertised.

Vast improvements are being made at the Aqueduct track. A new grandstand 225 feet long and 55 feet deep, to have a seating capacity of 3,500, will be a feature. The track has also been reconstructed and the dangerous first turn has been eliminated. A full seven furlongs

NOTES OF THE TURF.

F. B.: (1) A combination is a bet that two or more horses will win at odds displayed or agreed upon at the time the bet is made, and is usually, but not always, lost when one of the horses is scratched. (2) A parollee is a bet that two or more horses will win at track, or room or "ticker" odds, accumulating, and in case of scratches remains good as to such horses as are not scratched. (3) The answer to the other person's query did not relate to your case, but was an entirely different proposition.

Racing at Harlem Saturday having been declared off the horses composing Dr. H. E. Rowell's stable were not sold, as had been intended, but they will be sold at Hawthorne tomorrow at 1 p.m. instead. Some excellent campaigners, with the fast horse Malay at the head, will no doubt prove profitable investments.

Monday we will start the ball a-rolling with a 10 to 1 shot that will win by a block. This horse is a cracker-jack on a heavy track. The only disappointment to his owner is that Caviar is not in the same race, so the odds would be greater. No client should miss this golden opportunity to make money. Remember, no guess work goes with us; we are never shooting at the moon. Picking winners on a heavy track is or never was a hard task for us. Last winter when all other handicappers hid themselves we were there and always delivered the goods.

Winner—Ch. g. by Meddler—Zegri.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Zinziber was much the best, outgamed and outpaced the others at all stages and was never fully extended. He was a very cleverly managed horse and his running today confirms an existing opinion as to the suspicious riding of Veitch in his previous efforts. Fulminate, after trailing the field for two miles, finished fast. Orman tired after setting a stiff pace, but is a clever jumper and ran a game race. The Bachelor ran dully today and was under pressure from the start. He fenced poorly, in addition to being afflicted with the slows.
Scratched—28156 Decameron, 135; 27987 Fabius, 130.
Zinziber, show, 3 to 5. Fulminate, show, 4 to 5. Orman, show, evens. The Bachelor, show, 1 to 3.

28293 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. (On Main Track.) $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Highweight Handicap.

Winner—Ch. f. by Juvenal—Trill.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 23 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Musette has been improving steadily of late and was much the speediest of this field, when challenged at the stretch turn she drew away gamely, likes cold weather and should continue a winning career. Cerbera's showing today confirms his improved running in his last race. He was the only serious contender. Redpath, outrun in the first half, finished with a rush and was going strongest of all at the end. Duelist made up a lot of ground. Isia's race was much better than his previous one in Spencer's hands. King Pepper quit in the stretch and has developed into the worst kind of a sulker. Somerset showed plenty of speed, but was outclassed. Sly performed poorly.
Scratched—(28251) Wax Taper, 140; 28277 Carbuncle, 138; 28253 Kinnikinnick, 137; 27236 Sad-duces, 130; 28040 Candle, 115.
Musette, show, 6 to 5. Cerbera, show, evens. Redpath, show, 3 to 5.

28294 THIRD RACE—Last 3-4 Mile. (New Futurity Course.) 2-year-olds. Handicap. The Great Eastern Stakes. Value $7,500.

Time, 1:13.

Winner—B. f. by Inspector B.—Early Morn.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 20 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Endurance by Right galloped away with the rich stake with the same supreme ease that she has lately annexed ordinary pure races. Sombrero comes back an improved colt after his recent enforced retirement on account of sickness, showed brilliant speed and ran like a stayer. Otis ran well and is gradually showing improvement. Feme Sole was prominent throughout. Peninsula, off badly, and shut off and knocked about in the first half, finished strong as usual and is evidently a very useful colt over a distance of ground. Par Excellence and Lombre are both worth remembering. Saturday is of no account except in soft going. Major Daingerfield's race was too bad to be true and is due to the big field and much interference.
Scratched—(28099) Reno, 118; 28007 Masterman, 117; 28253 Flora Pomona, 111; (28252) Amicitia, 110; 28069 Sir Oliver, 109; (28228) Leonid, 108; 28154 Gaudre, 108; 28276 Cameron, 117; 28007 King Hanover, 116.
Overweights—Saturday, 1 pound; Major Daingerfield, 1; Bon Mot, 2.
Endurance by Right, show, out. Sombrero, show, 21 to 1. Otis, show, 21 to 1.

28295 FOURTH RACE—2 1-4 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. The Annual Champion Stakes. Value $25,000.

Winner—B. m. by The Bard—Ella Lakeland.
Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Maid of Harlem, which has always shown a dislike for big weight, trailed for the first two miles and when called on ran past Hammock as if he was anchored and coming on challenged Rockton in the stretch, drawing away in the most unexpected manner. Rockton, which had been galloping in front for one and a half miles under a stiff pull and apparently a certain winner, commenced to shorten his stride so perceptibly that it was generally believed that he broke down, which was the case. He could hardly finish out the last furlong. Hammock ran very well for a mile and three quarters.
Scratched—27215 Brigadier, 127; 28203 Bellario, 116.

28296 FIFTH RACE—Last 5 1-2 Furlongs. (New Futurity Course.) $900 added. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Winner—B. or br. f. by Escher—Van a Clar.
Went to post at 4:55. At post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Sister Juliet's early speed enabled her to secure clear sailing and, well handled, she was just able to last it out. City Bank unexpectedly showed amazing speed and gave a glimpse of his supposed true spring form and with a competent jockey would have won. Eddie Busch finished strongly after having met with interference. Lady Sterling had no possible chance to recover from the mishaps which befell her early in the race, but finished like a whirlwind. Ascension failed to stick in the last quarter and is evidently a much better filly on the regular track. Lady Radnor was poorly handled. Fonsolucia finished fast. The big field settled some of the rear ones, evidently.
Scratched—28153 Franceseo, 107; 28250 Blanket, 107; 28152 James P. Keating, 102; 28226 Hot, 97; 28152 Fried Krupp, 97; 28152 Honolulu, 99.
Overweights—Man o' War, 2 pounds; Montana Pioneer, 3.
Sister Juliet, show, evens. City Bank, show, 5 to 1. Eddie Busch, show, 3 to 5. Ascension, show, 7 to 10.

28297 SIXTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. (On Turf.) $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. f. by Russell—Certamen.
Went to post at 5:25. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second handily. The Amazon received a lucky start and ran up to her best form. Dolando, perfectly handled, ran a fine race and runs in and out as if a "dope" horse. Kinnikinnick, crowded and carried wide on the first turn, finished very strongly and was probably best. Wild Pirate was knocked out of the race on the first turn but closed a big gap. Barbara Frietchie's chances were practically destroyed on the first turn by crowding. The same applies to Demurrer and Bowen. Bedeck tired from chasing the winner.
Scratched—(28098) Golden Grain, 102; 28227 Alfred Vargrave, 101; 27597 Trebor, 98; 28255 Astor, 98; (28255) Lady Chorister, 94.
The Amazon, show, 6 to 5. Dolando, show, 21 to 1. Kinnikinnick, show, 4 to 5. Bowea, show, 3 to 5.

chute will be made. A large new betting ring, new two-story club house and new stables are being erected.

As a yearling Water Color was not offered at auction because he looked so bad that he would not elicit a bid. He was taken sick on his way from California to New York and at one time was at the point of death.

M. T. Danaher has been engaged to train the horses owned by W. S. Barnes of the Melbourne stud.

William Jackman with $30,000 to the good is the largest winner on the season of the California contingent of bookmakers doing business at New York tracks. Joe Rose is $10,000 winner. George Rose after a tremendous losing streak at Saratoga is about even.
